WAR IN PERSIA'S CAPITAL---SHAH FLEES KUHIO'S PLANS OF MUCH MOMENT

$100,000 FOR OUR CITY HALL

Plan For New Municipal Building Is Taking Shape --- Site Cause Of Agitation---Officials Differ As To Location---Talk Of The Town

A $100,000 City Hall. That is the slogan of county and city officials and prominent citizens today, and since the discussion by Governor Frear yesterday, the interest has taken wings and everywhere in official circles it is the opinion that Honolulu should have a municipal building that would hold a credit to the city and county.

Many are at variance with the Governor in regard to the proper site for such a building. Both the Governor and Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell, in figuring out the disposition of Honolulu Hale lot, have their eyes on the gore lot, corner King, Merchant and Richards streets, facing Palace Square.

Mayor Fern is deeply interested in the matter, but will not announce his preference of a site until after a meeting with the Governor and other officials, when the various sites will be discussed.

Attorney Milverton, Deputy County Attorney, does not favor the gore site, believing it to be too far out of the center of the business district.

Supervisor Aylett said this morning that the lot next to the postoffice on Merchant street, facing Kaahumanu street, is the proper location for a City Hall, for the reason that it is almost in the center of the city, next to the federal building and convenient to residents from all parts of town.

Attorney William Aehl, one of the leading citizens representing largely the Hawaiian sentiment, said:

"That lot next to the postoffice is the proper one. The gore lot is too far out."

KUHIO'S PLANS STIR POLITICIANS

George R. Carter doesn't know, can't believe that Kuhio can contemplate anything else than retirement on account of his, to them, unexplainable presence in Honolulu when the tariff bill is under consideration in Washington.

Mr. Carter expects to be traveling in Europe next fall and he expects to be going around the world with his family in 1910 and looking after the education of his children.

Yet in spite of all this there are people in Honolulu who believe that Politics is to George R. Carter like the Call of the Wild.

The announcement by the Bulletin of Delegate Kuhio's prospective retirement, set the political buzz saws going in great shape.

It is hard for the business people to believe that Kuhio can contemplate anything else than retirement on account of his, to them, unexplainable presence in Honolulu when the tariff bill is under consideration in Washington.

The pineapple men are boiling mad, underneath, at Kuhio. And thereby hangs a tale.

The pineapple men wanted the Delegate to Congress to go back to Washington by the last Alameda and make a fight for the pineapple tariff. According to their idea the Delegate was going on the Alameda. Then, according to their idea, the Delegate went off to Hilo and get back too late to take the steamer. In other words they think that Kuhio should have gone.

WAIMANALO MEN ARE BACK AT WORK

Including Three Whose Discharge Was Demanded

Japanese laborers of Waimanalo plantation are all at work this morning. Except of course for the sixteen who are held in jail in this city.

The regular labor force is at work and also the three Japanese whose discharge was demanded. If these three are not actually in the field, the manager has made it well understood that they will not be discharged.

So the Waimanalo affair has blown over except that some of the lines of the agitation are being followed up carefully and a fund of information is being secured as to the sources of the strike movement.

It is believed that the move at Waimanalo was originated in the agitation crowd in Honolulu and brought about as another blow in the hope of frightening the planters into making some concession. During last week the committee of Japanese merchants and professional men who have made a business of trying to get "some intimation" from the planters, were at work. They have thought and said that the men would return to work if "something" were said by "someone in authority" that would give the men some hope of a raise. They met the usual, now stereotyped response that the planters could do nothing and say nothing until the men returned to work and the strike is over.

Whereupon they responded that they could not be responsible for what the men might do.

Coincident with this it appears that an agitation crowd visited Waimanalo. The refusal to be responsible for what the men might do was on Saturday.

Sunday the row was started at Waimanalo.

Monday the men refused to work and were obviously in an ugly mood, since they had no respect for the law or the chief officer of the law.

It is thought that the blow was struck on the Waimanalo plantation because, for some reason or other, the Japanese seem to have the impression that the Irwin plantations are more likely than any others to concede something. Manager Chalmers' firm response was evidently a surprise.

Someone appears to have realized that the thing is being carried too far, and neither the plantations nor the community will stand for much more.

"JAPAN KING" WAS MOB'S CRY

Sheriff Jarrett Relates Thrilling Encounter With Strikers At Waimanalo--- Leaders Threaten Japan Will Take A Hand If Any Are Killed

Sheriff Jarrett is back in town this morning none the worse for wear, but he admits that it was a racking experience; he says he never before knew what a mob was. "Our automobile," said he, "was surrounded by these men all hollering and shouting like mad dogs and gesticulating at the same time. At times when things would commence to quiet down, some of their leaders would make speeches, and then the crowd would break out anew in rage and shout and gesticulate."

The five prisoners were put in the automobile who committed the original assault. That did no good; they were pulled out by the crowd, and other men would take their places in the automobile, and demand that all be taken to town or none. When I told them to keep away, or I would shoot, several of them shouted "Ma-ke, no pilikia." The crowd shouted something I was told mean: "let all hands stick together."

"They started in to attack the automobile itself as if they were mad, and it looked at one time as if they were going to turn the automobile over bodily. I got hold of the prisoners after they were taken away and started to put them into the automobile again in the back seat. Just as soon as I got several prisoners in, the mob climbed in from the other side and jerked them out and got into the automobile in their place, and then they would holler 'one go all go.' Their faces were distorted with rage, and really they acted more like mad dogs than human beings—I never saw the like of it. When I got the re-enforcement, and my officers surrounded the automobile with fixed bayonets pointing towards them, men out of the crowd would stand out and throw up their arms and say 'go ahead ma-a-ke, no pilikia,' as if inviting a bayonet charge.

"Townsend, my Japanese interpreter, told me that at times the crowd would holler out that if any of them were killed all right Japan would then jump in and take a hand, and a number of times I heard them shout 'Japan King,' as if they were trying to tell the thing in English. All together it was quite an experience. I return there this evening. Most of the men are at work this morning after they were told they either had to go to work or quit the plantation. I am credibly informed that Higher Wage agents from Honolulu are seeking to get admission to the plantation, and for that reason particularly a strong force of officers are being detained on the plantation."

Those arrested are Yamamoto, Hironaka, Kobayashi, Kimura, Nakagawa, Sugamoto, Ozaki, Inura, Ota, Nakai, Fukui, Tamura, Komori, Doi, Asami, Hiroaki.

LENGTH OF MINUTE VARIES RIOT TRIAL

Lightfoot Fires Objections At Questions Of Kinney

It was brought out this morning in the cross-examination of Fuchino, secretary of what has been known as the Waipahu Branch of the Higher Wage Association, that it is not a branch of the Association, but an independent organization in itself, or so Fuchino states. Lightfoot interposed frequent objections to the questions of Kinney that brought forth the testimony, but he was overruled in each case.

Later in cross-examination, Lightfoot attempted to have Fuchino give a practical demonstration of the time he thought constituted a minute. Kinney held a watch and when he gave the signal Fuchino thumped the desk. Four seconds later he thumped it again and declared the minute up.

Takayami was placed on the stand next, and his direct examination occupied but a little more than a half hour. He had been chopping wood below the Higher Wage Building on the night of the 8th of June, when the alleged riot occurred.

When he heard the pistol shot he went up the road, saw a large crowd, and went back and chopped wood. After indulging in this much excitement he went up to the office and smoked, not for the full hour and a half he was there, he protested, but only occasionally.

He was willing to answer Lightfoot's questions, but became sullen under Kinney's cross-examination and several times nearly compromised himself.

Alameda Is First

The Merchants Exchange reports the arrival of the steamship Alameda in San Francisco at 3 o'clock today. The Mongolia is reported by the same authority as arriving at 4 o'clock.

This means that the Alameda won out and landed her mail earlier than it would have reached the postoffice by the Mongolia. It is probable that the two ships traveled together all the way to San Francisco and made a mighty pretty trip of it.

HAWAII PUT ON PROGRAM

Superintendent Marston Campbell of the Public Works Department, today received a cable message from Arthur Hooker, Secretary of the National Irrigation Congress, to be held in Spokane from August 9 to 14, stating that in accordance with Mr. Campbell's request a place for Hawaii has been reserved on the program.

At the last meeting of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, Superintendent Ralph Hosmer was selected to represent Hawaii at the Congress. L. G. Blackman was also chosen to accompany him.

At the meeting Superintendent Campbell said he would cable to Hooker asking that a prominent place be given Mr. Hosmer on the program.

LARGEST FEDERAL SUIT EVER FILED

By far the largest condemnation suit ever filed in the United States Court here was recorded today. There are 223 defendants in the suit, and the title of the case is the United States against the Haku Sugar Company and others. The action involves condemnation proceedings against the parties named on Maui for the location of lighthouse and grounds.

The papers covering the suit consume more than 300 pages, besides the notices which have been placed in the hands of High Sheriff Hendry for service upon the defendants. Three acres of land are described in the action, located at Pauwela, Maui.

Battling In Streets Of Teheran

TEHERAN, Persia, July 13. — Thousands of Nationalists have entered the city and are occupying a portion of it, including that section where the Parliamentary buildings are located.

It is expected that the Shah will take refuge at one of the foreign legations. His body guard has deserted him.

The Cossacks are resisting the Nationalists and there is fighting in the streets. The foreigners are unharmed.
